

Blush

Weston Skaggs – 2016

V1

C D G D/F# Em
Maybe I should blush a little more at the sight of my sin
C D G D/F# Em
Cuz God knows my motives aren't always the purest within
C D G D/F#
Even when I'm doing right I find myself
Em D/F# G
Bracing to feel your pat on the back
C D G D/F# Em
Maybe I should blush a little more at the sight of my sin

V2

C D G D/F# Em
Maybe I should ache a little more for the pain in the world
C D G D/F# Em
For the bombs and the bullets and hate that continue to whirl
C D G D/F#
For the woman I pass on the East Side each morning
Em D/F# G
Carrying her heels home in shame
C D G D/F# Em
Maybe I should ache a little more for the pain in the world

V3

C D G D/F# Em
Maybe I should weep a little more at the foot of the cross
C D G D/F# Em
Transfixed by the one who counted all gain as loss
C D G D/F#
Maybe I should place my hand in His side
Em D/F# G
Where the water and blood rushed from when he died
C D G D/F# Em
Maybe I should weep a little more at the foot of the cross

TAG

C D
I need to blush a little more
G D/F# Em
I need to ache a little more
C A7
I need to weep a little more
C D C D G D/F# Em D/F# G
And think just bit less of me